Fifth Third Bank, Inc. is one of the nation's largest banks, offering commercial and retail banking services, investment advice, cash management, data processing and other services. The agent for service of process for Fifth Third Bank, Inc. is CSC-Lawyers Incorporating Service Company, 421 West Main Street, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18. This Court possesses subject matter jurisdiction because the amount in controversy exceeds the minimum jurisdictional threshold for this Court.

19. This Court possesses personal jurisdiction over Fifth Third Bank, Inc. by virtue of the following: (1) Fifth Third Bank, Inc. has elected to do business in Kentucky and has multiple locations in Kentucky, including but not limited to offices located in Florence, Lexington, Louisville and Bowling Green, Kentucky; (2) Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

contracted with Eastern Livestock Co., LLC to provide a revolving line of credit to facilitate the purchase and brokering of livestock in Kentucky; (3) Fifth Third Bank, Inc. regularly engages in business and solicits business in Kentucky; it derives substantial revenue from financial loans and services rendered in Kentucky and the loss sustained by Plaintiffs in this action arises from acts and/or omissions of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. during the course of providing the referenced loans and services to its commercial customer, Eastern Livestock Co., LLC. for the purchase of cattle in Metcalfe County, Kentucky; and (4) Fifth Third Bank, Inc. intentionally engaged in the wrongful acts set forth herein, the said acts being calculated to cause serious harm to the Plaintiffs who reside in Kentucky and Tennessee and to all of the Plaintiffs that sold livestock at the Edmonton Buying Station in Metcalfe County, Kentucky in September and October of 2010.

20. This case involves a conversion of the proceeds from the sale of livestock by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. that were sold in Edmonton, Metcalfe County, Kentucky. The damages sustained by each of the Plaintiffs by virtue of the foregoing conversion exceeds the jurisdictional minimum for the Metcalfe Circuit Court. Further, venue is proper in Metcalfe County, Kentucky because this is the county in which the livestock were sold.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

21. Eastern Livestock Co., LLC is a limited liability company with its headquarters located in New Albany, Indiana. Eastern Livestock Co., LLC was one of the largest livestock brokerage companies in the United States with operating branch facilities in eleven states.

22. In 2004, a Credit Agreement and a Security Agreement were entered into by and between Fifth Third Bank, Inc. and Eastern Livestock Co., LLC in order to facilitate and fund the livestock brokerage business of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

23. Pursuant to the Credit Agreement and Security Agreement executed by and between Fifth Third Bank and Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, Fifth Third Bank, Inc. was granted a first lien on the assets of Eastern Livestock, including but not limited to its equipment, inventory of livestock, including inventory in transit and accounts receivable from the sale of livestock held by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

24. Pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement, Eastern Livestock Co., LLC was required to disclose the Principals of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC and its Affiliates to Fifth Third Bank, Inc. Section 1.1 of the referenced Credit Agreement defines Affiliate, as (a) any Person which, directly or indirectly, is in control of, is controlled by or is under common control with, Borrower, or (b) any Person who is a director or manager of an LLC, office or employee of Borrower or any Person described in the preceding clause. As it relates to an Affiliate, the referenced Credit Agreement provides that "Control" means the ability to voice 5% or more of the Ownership interest.

25. In 2004, Eastern Livestock Co., LLC disclosed the following affiliates of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC unto Fifth Third Bank, Inc.:

AFFILIATE	OWNERSHIP
Okie Farms, LLC	100% Eastern Livestock Co., LLC
Eastern Cattle Co., LLC	66.6% Thomas P. Gibson 33.4% John S. Gibson
Rocking E Feeders, LLC	66.6% Thomas P. Gibson 33.4% John S. Gibson

Crow Hollow, LLC	66.6% Thomas P. Gibson 33.4% John S. Gibson
Gibson Farms, LLC	50% Thomas P. Gibson 50% John S. Gibson
Olim, LLC	98% TPG Trust 1% Thomas P. Gibson 1% Patsy Gibson
Taylor County Stockyards, LLC	100% Thomas P. Gibson
West Kentucky Livestock Market, LLC	66.6% Thomas P. Gibson 33.4% John S. Gibson

Further, the following ownership interests of Eastern Livestock were disclosed unto Fifth Third Bank, Inc. in 2004:

MEMBER	LLC UNITS
Thomas P. Gibson	666 2/3 Class A 83,357 Class B
John S. Gibson	333 1/3 Class A 43,678 Class B
Patsy Gibson	5,698 Class B
Thomas P. Gibson Irrevocable Generation Skipping Trust dated December 26, 2000, Nancy G. McDonald and John F. Gibson, Co- Trustees	1,000 Class 136,733 Class B

26. Pursuant to Section 2 of the Credit Agreement, Revolving Loans were established with a revolving line of credit extended by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. to Eastern Livestock Co., LLC for the purpose of funding the purchase of livestock by Eastern Livestock.

27. In order to fund the purchase of livestock by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC transfers were made by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. into a non-interest bearing controlled disbursement account maintained by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. for Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, the said account being structured and utilized in accordance with the policies and procedures established by Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

28. Schedule 1.1 of the referenced Credit Agreement identified eleven separate "Borrower's Facilities" where Eastern Livestock Co., LLC would purchase livestock. The facility of import to this litigation was Branch # 13, Edmonton Buying Station (Lease Location) located at 310 North Main Street, Edmonton, Kentucky 42129.

29. Eastern Livestock Co., LLC regularly conducted bona fide arms length purchases of livestock at the Edmonton Buying Station on Tuesday of each week during the period of 2004 through November 2, 2010.

30. In the normal course of its business, Eastern Livestock Co., LLC would issue checks drawn on its controlled disbursement account at Fifth Third Bank, Inc. on Tuesday of each week for the purpose of purchasing livestock from the owners of said livestock.

31. Following the purchase of livestock on Tuesday of each week, Eastern Livestock Co., LLC would fax or otherwise transmit to Fifth Third Bank, Inc. verification of the livestock purchased and the checks issued for the purchase of livestock at the Edmonton Buying Station.

32. Upon receipt of the verification of livestock purchased and checks issued by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC at the Edmonton Buying Station on Tuesday of each week, Fifth Third Bank, Inc. would transfer sufficient funds into the controlled disbursement account established for Eastern Livestock Co., LLC at Fifth Third Bank, Inc. to fund the livestock purchased by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

33. In 2007, the check kiting detection software maintained by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. indicated that check kiting activity was occurring in the checking account of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC located at Fifth Third Bank, Inc. Thereafter, an internal investigation was conducted by Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

34. In 2009, a second investigation was conducted by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. with regard to check kiting activity in the Eastern Livestock Co., LLC account at Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

35. In 2010, a third investigation was conducted by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. with regard to check kiting activity occurring in the Eastern Livestock Co., LLC account at Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

36. On November 1, 2010, Fifth Third Bank, Inc. unilaterally froze the four checking accounts of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, including the controlled disbursement account maintained by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. for the purchase of livestock by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, without Notice to Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, the Principals of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, or the owners of livestock that had sold their cattle in September and October of 2010.

37. By virtue of failing to honor the check or checks issued to Plaintiffs prior to November 2, 2010, Fifth Third Bank knew Plaintiffs would sustain a loss in the amount of the check issued for the sale of their livestock to Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

38. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. intentionally failed to honor and fund the checks issued by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC to Plaintiffs for the purchase of livestock at the Edmonton Buying Station prior to November 2, 2010 for the specific purpose of defrauding the owners of said livestock. At the time of sale of their livestock to Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, the first lien of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. attached to Plaintiff's livestock and the receivables of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC arising by virtue of the purchase of said livestock by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

39. At the time that Fifth Third Bank, Inc. froze the checking accounts of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, Fifth Third Bank, Inc. knew that it was not going to honor any checks that had not previously cleared and were issued by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC for the purchase of cattle at the Edmonton Buying Station prior to November 2, 2010.

40. The wrongful actions of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. was for the specific purpose of minimizing and reducing the deficiency balance of the bad loan extended By Fifth Third Bank, Inc. to Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, the said reduction being at the expense of Plaintiffs.

41. The wrongful actions of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. did in fact minimize and reduce the loss incurred by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. by (1) allowing Fifth Third Bank, Inc. to execute upon the first lien on the livestock purchased by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC prior to November 2, 2010; and (2) allowing Fifth Third Bank, Inc. to execute upon a lien on livestock for which the owners had not been compensated for the sale of said livestock.

COUNT ONE
ACTION FOR CONVERSION

42. The allegations set forth in paragraphs 01 through 41 are reiterated, adopted and incorporated by reference.

43. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. wrongfully and intentionally exercised dominion and control over the property of Plaintiffs through the following wrongful acts and omissions:

A. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. wrongfully dishonored the checks issued by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC to purchase the livestock of Plaintiffs.

B. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. asserted a first lien upon the livestock of Plaintiffs and the proceeds from the sale of said livestock.

C. On November 9, 2010 Fifth Third Bank, Inc. initiated an action for appointment of a Receiver in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas in Ohio for the purpose of acting upon its first lien upon the cattle inventory and receivables of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, including the livestock owned by Plaintiffs. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. acted with full knowledge that the checks issued to Plaintiffs for their livestock had been dishonored by Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

44. At the time that Fifth Third Bank, Inc. secretly froze the checking accounts of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC, Fifth Third Bank, Inc. knew the following:

A. Eastern Livestock Co., LLC had purchased livestock at the Edmonton Buying Station prior to November 2, 2010 and issued checks drawn on its controlled disbursement checking account at Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

C. The first lien of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. had attached to the livestock of Plaintiffs.

D. Plaintiffs had surrendered possession of their livestock based upon the premise that Fifth Third Bank would honor the checks issued to Plaintiffs in exchange for their livestock.

45. The intentional wrongful conduct of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. seriously interfered with the property interest of Plaintiffs in their livestock. With regard to the intentional and wrongful serious interference of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. with the interest of Plaintiffs in their respective livestock, Plaintiffs further state as follows:

A. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. dishonored the checks issued to Plaintiffs even though the value of Eastern's cattle inventory was enhanced by virtue of the purchase of said cattle by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC;

B. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. has continuously exercised dominion and control over the livestock and the proceeds from the subsequent sale of the livestock during the period of November 2, 2010 through the date of filing this complaint;

C. With full knowledge of the interest of the Plaintiffs in their livestock and the fact that Plaintiffs have been unlawfully deprived of the proceeds from the sale of their livestock, Fifth Third Bank, Inc. wrongfully asserted an interest in the livestock and the proceeds from the subsequent sale of the livestock;

D. The actions of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. were not exercised in good faith;

E. The extent and duration of the resulting interference by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. with the right of control held by Plaintiffs has been pervasive and continuous since November 2, 2010;

F. The loss of control of the livestock proceeds of Plaintiffs was accomplished by the wrongful acts of Fifth Third Bank, Inc.;

G. Fifth Third Bank received each of the respective checks issued to Plaintiffs by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC. Alternatively, in the event that Fifth did not receive a check in fact, the occasion for the failure to receive said check arose by virtue of the freeze placed upon the accounts of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. Once other banks became aware of the freeze, a number of Banks refused to accept for deposit the checks issued by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC for the purchase of livestock. By and through this Complaint, formal demand is hereby made that Fifth Third Bank, Inc. make payment for all checks issued to Plaintiffs for the sale of livestock to Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

H. Upon receipt of the referenced checks, Fifth Third Bank, Inc. intentionally and wrongfully failed to honor the checks that had been issued to Plaintiffs for their livestock.

I. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. failed and refused to honor the checks issued to Plaintiffs with knowledge that (1) the referenced checks had been issued by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC for the purchase of livestock owned by Plaintiffs; (2) that Plaintiffs had accepted the checks in exchange for their livestock; (3) that the livestock purchased by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC prior to November 2, 2010 at the Edmonton Buying Station had become part of the assets and cattle inventory of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC; (4) that the first lien held by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. had attached to the livestock sold by Plaintiffs at the Edmonton Buying Station prior to November 2, 2010; and (5) that by refusing to honor the checks issued by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC for the purchase of Plaintiff's livestock, Fifth Third Bank, Inc. would wrongfully benefit at the expense of Plaintiffs.

J. The inconvenience, expense and harm caused unto Plaintiffs by the wrongful acts of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. has been severe.

46. By virtue of failing to honor the checks issued unto Plaintiffs for their livestock, the proceeds from the sale of the livestock of Plaintiffs were converted by virtue of the wrongful acts of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. Accordingly, the interest of the respective Plaintiffs has been subjected to serious harm.

47. Plaintiffs requested Fifth Third Bank, Inc. to make payment for their livestock upon submission of the their respective checks for payment. By and through this Complaint, formal demand is further made upon Fifth Third Bank, Inc. to make restitution unto Plaintiffs for the livestock wrongfully taken from Plaintiffs, the said restitution being in the respective amount of the checks issued to Plaintiffs in payment for their livestock.

48. The acts of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. set forth herein were wrongful, intentional and not privileged.

49. A Judgment should be entered on behalf of Plaintiffs against Fifth Third Bank, Inc. for the damages incurred by virtue of the wrongful conversion caused by Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

COUNT TWO
ACTION FOR UNJUST ENRICHMENT

50. The allegations set forth in paragraphs 01 through 41 are reiterated, adopted and incorporated by reference.

52. The livestock purchased from Plaintiffs at the Edmonton Buying Station prior to November 2, 2010 were added to the inventory of assets of Eastern Livestock Co., LLC pursuant to the Credit Agreement and Security Agreement executed by Eastern Livestock Co. and Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

53. Plaintiffs received checks from Eastern Livestock Co., LLC in exchange for their livestock that Fifth Third Bank, Inc. intentionally and wrongfully failed to fund and honor.

54. The value of the collateral for which Fifth Third Bank, Inc. held a first lien was increased by the value of the livestock purchased from Plaintiffs. The checks issued to Plaintiffs by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC represent the value of the cattle at the time of sale to Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

55. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. received a benefit at the expense of Plaintiffs.

56. A resulting appreciation of benefit was received by Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

57. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. has wrongfully and inequitably retained the referenced benefit without payment for its value unto the Plaintiffs.

58. A judgment should be entered on behalf of Plaintiffs against Fifth Third Bank, Inc. by virtue of the unjust enrichment of Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

COUNT THREE
ACTION FOR THEFT BY FAILURE TO MAKE REQUIRED DISPOSITION
PURSUANT TO KRS 446.070

59. The allegations set forth in paragraphs 001 through 041 are reiterated, adopted and incorporated by reference.

60. Pursuant to the Credit and Security Agreements executed by and between Eastern Livestock Co., LLC and Fifth Third Bank, Inc., Fifth Third Bank, Inc. was granted a first lien on the assets of Eastern Livestock, including but not limited to its equipment, inventory of livestock, including inventory of livestock in transit and accounts receivable from the sale of livestock held by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

61. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. acquired a first lien on the livestock purchased by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC from Plaintiffs pursuant to the Credit Agreement and Security Agreement executed by and between Fifth Third Bank, Inc. and Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

62. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. acquired the first lien upon the livestock of Plaintiffs subject to a known legal obligation to fund the checks issued by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC for the purchase of livestock purchased by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC.

63. Fifth Third Bank, Inc. has intentionally dealt with the referenced livestock collateral as its own and failed to fund the checks issued for the subject livestock by Eastern Livestock Co., LLC or otherwise make payment for said livestock.

64. The value of Plaintiffs' livestock is in excess of $10,000.00 pursuant to KRS 514.070(4)(b).

65. The violation of KRS 514.070 is the proximate cause of the damages sustained by Plaintiffs.

66. A judgment for compensatory and punitive damages should be entered on behalf of Plaintiffs pursuant to KRS 446.070.

COUNT FIVE
ACTION FOR PUNITIVE DAMAGES

89. The allegations set forth in paragraphs 01 through 41, 43 through 49, 51 through 58, 60 through 66, 68 through 88 are reiterated, adopted and incorporated by reference.

90. Fifth Third Bank, Inc., acting by and through its agents within the course and scope of their employment, and with reckless disregard of its duties and responsibilities as set forth in Counts One, Two and Three of this Complaint and with reckless disregard for the lives, safety or property of others including the life, safety and interests of the Plaintiffs in this action, violated the respective duties, responsibilities and legal obligations owed unto Plaintiffs.

91. The conduct of the agent or agents of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. was performed in the course and scope of their employment and said conduct was authorized, ratified, or should have been anticipated by the defendant, Fifth Third Bank, Inc.

92. A judgment for punitive damages should be awarded unto each of the Plaintiffs based upon the following factors:

A. The harm caused to each Plaintiff as measured by the compensatory damages sustained by each Plaintiff and the potential for further harm caused by Defendant's failure to comply with its duties as set forth herein;

B. The degree to which the failure of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. to comply with its duties was reprehensible, considering:

1. The likelihood at the time of such misconduct by Fifth Third Bank, Inc. that serious harm would arise from it;

2. The degree of defendant's awareness of the likelihood of the harm that would result from its conduct;

3. The profitability of the misconduct to Fifth Third Bank, Inc.;

4. The duration of the misconduct and any concealment of the misconduct by Fifth Third Bank, Inc.;

5. The degree to which the Fifth Third Bank, Inc.'s conduct represented an indifference to or a reckless disregard of the health, safety and legal interests of Plaintiffs;

6. The degree to which each of the Plaintiffs had financial vulnerability;

7. The degree to which the conduct of Fifth Third Bank, Inc. involved repeated actions as opposed to an isolated incident; and

8. The degree to which the harm to Plaintiffs was the result of intentional malice, trickery, or deceit as opposed to being an accident.

93. The total damages for which recovery is sought herein by each of the Plaintiffs exceeds the jurisdictional minimum for the Metcalfe Circuit Court. However, the total damages, including compensatory, pain and suffering, consequential and punitive damages, sustained by each of the Plaintiffs is less than $75,000.00.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray the Court as follows:

01. For entry of a judgment on behalf of Jimmy Hendrick against Fifth Third Bank, Inc. for compensatory damages in the amount of $10,567.29 and punitive damages, the total compensatory and punitive damages being in excess of $5,000.00 but less than $75,000.00;

02. For entry of a separate judgment on behalf of William Rex Elmore against Fifth Third Bank, Inc. for compensatory damages in the amount of $25,728.36 and punitive damages, the combined compensatory and punitive damages being less than $57,151.67¹;

03. For entry of a separate judgment on behalf of Glen Hurt against Fifth Third Bank, Inc. for compensatory damages in the amount of $5,919.27 and punitive damages, the total compensatory and punitive damages being in excess of $5,000.00 but less than $75,000.00;

04. For entry of a separate judgment on behalf of James Matthew Brummett and James Curtis Brummett, d/b/a Pine Ridge Farm, against Fifth Third Bank, Inc. for compensatory damages in the amount of $8,837.66 and punitive damages, the total compensatory and punitive damages being in excess of $5,000.00 but less than
